A Historic Gathering in Lucknow: AIMA U.P. & Kerala Samajam Join Hands

The vibrant city of Lucknow recently witnessed a remarkable union of service and solidarity as the All India Malayalee Association (AIMA), Uttar Pradesh State Unit, and Kerala Samajam, Lucknow came together to host the Lucknow Meet on the 5th and 6th of April 2025. Rooted in compassion and unity, the two-day program was filled with humanitarian activities, constructive discussions, and cultural engagement – reaffirming the power of community-driven change.

Day 1: Extending a Helping Hand – April 5, 2025

AIMA U.P. Donation Cheque Handover at SGP GIMS Hospital

The first day began with an act of kindness and empathy. At 4:30 PM, representatives of AIMA U.P. and Kerala Samajam, Lucknow visited SGP GIMS Hospital to hand over a donation cheque of ₹1,00,000 to Mr. Vaisakh V.R., a patient in need of urgent medical assistance. The funds were collected as part of a charitable drive organized by AIMA U.P., with additional support pouring in from various chapters, including various AIMA members and others, totaling an approximate contribution of ₹1,80,000.

Strategic Meeting with Kerala Samajam Officials

At 7:00 PM, a strategic meeting was held between the office-bearers of AIMA U.P. and Kerala Samajam, Lucknow. The discussion centered around future collaborations, upcoming welfare programs, and enhanced community engagement strategies to benefit the Malayalee population residing in Uttar Pradesh.

Day 2: Food for Needy Initiative – April 6, 2025

AIMA's Commitment to Humanity

The second day marked another chapter of service under the banner of AIMA's pan-India initiative – "Food for Needy". At 12:30 PM, nutritious meals were distributed at St. Francis School for the Hearing Impaired, located at Jai Nigam Road, Mishribagh, Balaganj, Lucknow. This program, executed with full cooperation from Kerala Samajam, Lucknow, catered to nearly 200 children, sisters, and school staff. The children's heartfelt cultural performances added warmth and vibrancy to the occasion, creating lasting memories for all present.

Distinguished Guests Gracing the Occasion

The success of the Lucknow Meet was amplified by the presence of dedicated leaders and dignitaries from both AIMA and Kerala Samajam, whose efforts ensured a seamless and impactful program:

- Smt. Minishthy S. Nair – Finance Secretary, Government of Uttar Pradesh (Chief Guest)
- Shri Suresh Kumar Nair – President, AIMA U.P.
- Shri K.T. Mahasayan – Secretary, AIMA U.P.
- Shri Jayaraj Nair – Additional National General Secretary, AIMA
- Smt. Deepthi Nair – National Vice Chairperson, AIMA Women's Wing
- Shri Pathiyur Ravi – Vice President, AIMA U.P.
- Shri Jensen James – President, Kerala Samajam, Lucknow
- Shri Binoy Andrews – Treasurer, Kerala Samajam, Lucknow
- Shri Reji Lukose – Vice-President, Kerala Samajam, Lucknow
- Shri Gopakumar Pillai – Joint Secretary, Kerala Samajam, Lucknow
- Shri Johnny – Member, Kerala Samajam & other members of the Kerala Samajam, Lucknow.

Their combined vision and commitment brought forth meaningful discussions and community service that set a new benchmark for inter-organizational cooperation.

Building Bonds Beyond Borders

The Lucknow Meet served as a powerful reminder that geographic boundaries do not limit compassion and cooperation. It celebrated the essence of community bonding – where Malayalees in Uttar Pradesh, far from their native Kerala, came together as one extended family to support one another. Through the donation drive, the strategic partnership meeting, and the Food for Needy initiative, the event successfully demonstrated how impactful collaborative efforts can be when anchored in empathy and a sense of responsibility.

Conclusion: Unity in Action

The joint initiatives by AIMA U.P. and Kerala Samajam, Lucknow during the two-day Lucknow Meet underline a strong message: together, we can make a difference. From providing vital medical support to ensuring food reaches the underprivileged, the organizations exemplified the spirit of "service above self." As the echoes of laughter and the warmth of shared meals fade into memories, what remains is a strengthened bond between two community pillars – committed to lighting lives and lifting spirits. Stay connected for more updates on upcoming initiatives and community stories that inspire and unite.
